Dear Parents,

We extend our heartfelt gratitude for the strong parent-school collaboration that has helped us shape a learning environment where our students excel in all aspects of their personality - academically, creatively, and socially. Your unwavering support has played a vital role in our journey towards creating a school that nurtures well-rounded individuals.

We are pleased to announce that registrations for the next batch of admissions session 2025-26 are now open, and we seek your kind support in spreading the word to your friends, colleagues, and family members.

We look forward to continuing this wonderful partnership in the years ahead as we work together to achieve even greater milestones.

God bless!

Warm regards,
